Article 6. The corporation will have members.

Article 7. The Association accepts without reservation and recognizes as inviolable and unchangeable:

- A. All of the canonical books of the Old and New Testaments of the Holy Bible as the inspired and inerrant Word of God; and
- B. All of the Confessional Writings of the Evangelical Lutheran Church contained in the Book of Concord (1580 A.D.) as the true and genuine exposition of the Word of God. These Confessional Writings are:
 - The Ecumenical Creeds (Apostles', Nicene, and Athanasian),
 - The Unaltered Augsburg Confession,
 - The Apology of the Augsburg Confession,
 - The Smalcald Articles, including The Treatise on the Power and Primacy of the Pope,
 - The Small Catechism of Dr. Martin Luther,
 - The Large Catechism of Dr. Martin Luther, and
 - The Formula of Concord.

All teaching and governance of the Association will be in accordance with items A. and B. above.

Article 8. The purpose of such corporation shall be to promote Lutheran secondary education and to establish, conduct, control, manage and maintain one or more Lutheran high schools for that purpose in the State of Wisconsin.

Article 9. The corporation shall be non-stock and no dividends or pecuniary profits shall be declared or paid to the members thereof.

Article 10. The general officers of said corporation shall be a President, a Vice President, a Secretary and a Treasurer. The number of Directors will be flexible based on the Partnership Formula as determined by the Delegates.

Article 11. The principal duties of the President shall be to preside at all meetings of the members and the Board of Directors and to have a general supervision of the affairs of the corporation.

The principal duties of the Vice President shall be to discharge the duties of the President in the event of absence or disability, for any cause whatever, of the latter.

The principal duties of the Secretary shall be to countersign all deeds, leases and conveyances executed by the corporation, affix the seal of the corporation thereto, and to such other papers as shall be required or directed to be sealed, and to keep a record of the proceedings of the Board of Directors, and to safely and systematically keep all books, papers, records, and documents belonging to the corporation, or in any wise pertaining thereof, except the books and records incidental to the duties of the treasurer.

The principal duties of the Treasurer shall be to keep and account for all monies, credits and property, of any and every nature, of the corporation, which shall come into his hands, and keep an accurate account of all monies received and disbursed, and proper vouchers for monies disbursed, and to render such accounts, statements and inventories of monies received and disbursed, and of all money and property on hand, and generally of all matters pertaining to his office, as shall be required by the Board of Directors.

The Board of Directors may provide of the appointment of such additional officers as they may deem for the best interests of the corporation.

Whenever the Board of Directors may so order, any two offices, the duties of which do not conflict, may be held by one person. The said officers shall perform such additional or different duties from time to time as imposed or required by the Board of Directors, or as may be prescribed from time to time by the By-Laws.

Article 12. The officers of the Association shall be elected by the Board of Directors, as described in the By-Laws. The Delegates are appointed based on the Partnership Formula.

The method and conditions upon which members shall be accepted and discharged or expelled shall be as follows:

Section 1 – Regular Members

Any congregation affiliated with the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod, and such other synods with whom doctrinal unity has been established, may be or become a member of this Association.

Section 2 – Associate Members

Any communicant member who is in good standing in a congregation affiliated with the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod or such other synods with whom doctrinal unity has been established may be or may become an associate member of this Association.

Section 3 – Members qualified, as aforesaid, shall be and become members upon filing with the Secretary any document evidencing their desire and consent to become such members.

A membership may be terminated upon the willful failure of any member to fulfill its obligation of membership, to wit: by disqualification due to change in status or failure to contribute by the vote of a majority of the then voting members of the Association.

Article 13. These articles may be amended by a two-thirds majority vote of the Delegates present and voting at any regular meeting of the Association, or at any special meeting called for that purpose, provided that a written notification of the proposed amendment has been given to the member congregations for distribution to the delegates sixty days prior to the meeting at which the proposed amendment is to be voted upon and provided that at least half of the member congregations are represented when the vote upon the proposed amendment is taken.
